Consist at job fairs

IT service provider Consist from Kiel will be presenting itself as an employer at Kiel University of Applied Sciences' Company Contact Day on October 23, 2019 and at the Careers Day in Lübeck on November 12, 2019.

Kiel – Consist will once again be presenting itself this year at Kiel University of Applied Sciences' Company Contact Day on October 23, 2019 with its own booth (foyer, booth A07). From 9am to 4pm, interested students can find out what Consist is like as an employer, get information about career-entry jobs and currently vacant positions. A Big Data expert from Consist will also be speaking about “Big Data in the corporate environment – starting out in your job and your career options” as part of the lecture program.

The Company Contact Day is north Germany's largest job fair organized by students. This popular event has been held on the University of Applied Sciences campus for over 25 years – this year's motto is #gutesmorgen. In 2019, over 100 companies and 7,000 students will get together in order to network and interact on career opportunities.

Careers Day on November 12, 2019

Consist will also be represented at the Careers Day in Lübeck on November 12, 2019 from 12:00 - 4:30pm with a booth (number 1) in the Audimax (Mönkhofer Weg 245, 23562 Lübeck). This event puts students in contact with companies from a wide range of sectors. The companies offer things like student jobs, trainee positions, Bachelor's and Master's theses, internship placements, opportunities to start careers and perspectives.
