Working Group "Digital Economy and Digitization" of the IHK Kiel chooses new chairperson

Kiel – on June 18, 2019 Dipl.-Math. Martin Lochte-Holtgreven (61) was unanimously elected Chairman of the working group "Digital Economy and Digitization" of the IHK Kiel. With his new role, the managing director of Consist Software Solutions GmbH from Friedrichsort emphasizes the repositioning of the working group, which formerly operated under the heading "New Media".

32 companies based in Schleswig-Holstein want to push digitization in Schleswig-Holstein forward in future through recommendations, statements and stronger networking. In the kick-off meeting, the members agreed on a priority list for the next five years. Particular attention was paid to education and training, digital infrastructures, data protection and trends, such as working in and with the cloud.
