Consist Software Solutions impresses at IT Tage 2025

From December 8-11, 2025, Consist Software Solutions successfully participated in IT Tage in Frankfurt am Main with a booth and two presentations.

Kiel – Consist Software Solutions was once again present at IT Tage (IT Days) 2025 in Frankfurt am Main from December 8-11, 2025. As a Gold Partner, the company was represented with its own booth and two specialist presentations. The presentations by the Consist experts focused on the topics “When expertise is lost: A strategy for supporting legacy applications” and “Increasing efficiency and reducing energy costs with Splunk.”

Visitors to the Consist booth showed particular interest in the support and further development of legacy applications and the modernization of software.

About IT Days 2025

IT Days 2025 once again proved to be an important German-language IT conference that brings together software development, architecture, DevOps, AI, cloud, databases, IT security, agile, and IT management under one roof – this year with a special focus on digital sovereignty and open source. Many software providers and IT service providers were present in person at the accompanying trade fair and exhibition, providing information on new technologies and their possible applications, among other things.
